Enrolling in the IPHS 500 seminar (summer 2022): Students taking the summer seminar should fill out a short application for the course through the UIC Summer Session (instructions below):

1. Access the graduate application system via the following link:
   https://applygrad.uic.edu/apply/?sr=9d79c0b3-3635-4d0f-b36e-4181243c163d
   a. If you have previously applied for a graduate program at UIC since 2018, you can use the same login as a returning user, otherwise you can create an account.
   b. After you've logged in with your existing or new account, click Start New Application.
      i. If you are prompted to select an application type, select "Applications" then "General Application."
2. At the top of the Background & Residency page, click the checkbox indicating that you've been provided a Special Use Code, complete the rest of the page, as applicable, then click Continue.
   a. You'll then be prompted to provide the Special Use Code—21iphs500—and can continue to complete the rest of the application.
   b. Graduate Non-degree applicants are required to upload proof of a Bachelor's or higher degree, which can be a scanned copy of your diploma or a scanned copy of a transcript on which the degree award is noted.
3. The application must be submitted by 6/10/2022 at 11:59 PM (note: application fee will be waived).
4. Students will receive course registration instructions via e-mail by Friday, June 17, 2022.
